

DeAnna Brunner
Chief Counsel and Administrative Officer
Indiana State Department of Agriculture

DeAnna Brunner is the Chief Counsel and Administrative Officer for the Indiana State Department of Agriculture. Prior to joining ISDA, DeAnna spent three years with the Indiana Attorney General's office as a Deputy Attorney General, negotiating, drafting and reviewing contracts, as well as advising on state and administrative law. She also worked briefly in the criminal appeals division. Prior to attending law school, DeAnna held a position with Agri-Business Group in Indianapolis.

DeAnna is a native of Marion County Indiana, where she graduated from Decatur Central High School. She has a bachelor's degree in history from Butler University, and she received her juris doctor from Ave Maria School of Law. DeAnna currently lives in Indianapolis.